Offences by corporate bodies or Scottish partnerships

5.—(1) Where an offence under these Regulations which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of —

- (a) any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
- (b) any person purporting to act in such a capacity, that person as well as the body corporate will be deemed to be guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Offences due to the act or default of a third party

6. Where the commission by any person of an offence under these Regulations is due to the act or default of some other person, that other person will be guilty of the offence; and a person may be charged with and convicted of the offence whether or not proceedings are taken against the first mentioned person.

Time limit for prosecutions

7. No prosecution for an offence under these Regulations is to be begun after the expiry of three years from the commission of the offence or one year from its discovery by the prosecutor, whichever is the earlier.

Defence of due diligence

8.—(1) In any proceedings for an offence under these Regulations it will, subject to paragraph (4), be a defence for the person accused to prove that he or she took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence by himself or herself or by a person under his or her control.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), a person accused of an offence under regulation 4(1)(a) who did not —

- (a) prepare the lid in respect of which the offence is alleged to have been committed; nor
- (b) import it into the United Kingdom, is to be taken to have established the defence provided by paragraph (1) if he or she satisfies the requirements of paragraph (3).

(3) A person satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she proves —

- (a) that the commission of the offence was due to the act or default of some other person who was not under his or her control, or to reliance on information supplied by such a person;

 - (ii) it was reasonable in all the circumstances for him or her to rely on checks carried out by the person who supplied him or her with the lid in question; and
- (d) that he or she did not know and had no reason to suspect at the time the offence was committed that his or her act or omission would amount to an offence under regulation 4(1)(a).

(4) If in any case the defence provided by paragraph (1) involves the allegation that the commission of the offence was due to the act or default of another person, or to reliance on information supplied by another person, the person accused will not without leave of the court be entitled to rely on that defence unless —

- (a) at least seven clear days before the hearing; and
- (b) where he or she has previously appeared before the court in connection with the alleged offence, within one month of his or her first such appearance, he or she has served on the prosecutor a written notice giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of that other person as was then in his or her possession.

Procedure where a sample is to be analysed

9.—(1) An authorised officer who has procured a sample under section 29 of the Act and who considers it should be analysed will divide the sample into three parts.

(2) If the sample consists of sealed containers and opening them would, in the opinion of the authorised officer, impede a proper analysis, the authorised officer will divide the sample into parts by putting the containers into three lots, and each lot is to be treated as being a part.

(3) The authorised officer will —

- (a) if necessary place each part in a suitable container and seal it;
- (b) mark each part or container;
- (c) as soon as reasonably practicable, give one part to the owner and notify him or her in writing that the sample will be analysed;
- (d) submit one part for analysis in accordance with section 30 of the Act; and
- (e) retain one part for future submission under regulation 10.

- (a) proceedings are intended to be or have been commenced against a person for an offence under these Regulations; and
- (b) the prosecution intends to adduce as evidence the result of the analysis mentioned above, paragraphs (2) to (7) apply.

(2) The authorised officer —

- (a) may of his or her own volition; or
- (b) will —
 - (i) if requested by the prosecutor (if a person other than the authorised officer),
 - (ii) if the court so orders, or
 - (iii) (subject to paragraph (6)) if requested by the defendant, send the retained part of the sample to the Government Chemist for analysis.

(3) The Government Chemist will analyse the part sent to him or her under paragraph (2) and send to the authorised officer a certificate specifying the result of the analysis.

(4) Any certificate given by the Government Chemist will be signed by him or her or on his or her behalf, but the analysis may be carried out by any person under the direction of the person who signs the certificate.

(5) The authorised officer will immediately on receipt supply the prosecutor (if a person other than the authorised officer) and the defendant with a copy of the Government Chemist's certificate.

(6) Where a request is made under paragraph (2)(b)(iii) the authorised officer may give notice in writing to the defendant requesting payment of a fee specified in the notice to defray some or all of the Government Chemist's charges for performing the functions under paragraph (3), and in the absence of agreement by the defendant to pay the fee specified in the notice the authorised officer may refuse to comply with the request.
