The National Assembly for Wales Quiz

1. Circle the options that best describe the National Assembly for Wales:

a) The Assembly makes laws for the people of Wales
b) The Assembly is a group of unelected Members
c) The Assembly represents the people of Wales
d) The Assembly meets once a year
e) The Assembly meets at the Senedd, Cardiff Bay

2. How many Assembly Members are there?

   40  100  60

3. Name the five Members who represent you in the National Assembly for Wales:

   01. ..............................................................................................................
   02. ..............................................................................................................
   03. ..............................................................................................................
   04. ..............................................................................................................
   05. ..............................................................................................................
4. On which days and at what time do all the Assembly Members meet? Tick the correct box.

- Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons
- Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings
- Tuesday and Thursday afternoons

5. What is this meeting called?

- Plenary
- Assembly
- Senedd

6. What can the National Assembly for Wales make decisions about? Circle the 5 correct answers:

- Fashion
- Agriculture
- Sport
- Police
- Health
- Education
- Welsh Language
- Taxes

7. The National Assembly for Wales creates laws / rules for the people of Wales. These are called Acts of the Assembly.

Can you think of a new law for Wales?

My law would be...

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Because...

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________