Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit that are relevant to Wales. It covers developments in Wales, the EU, Westminster, Scotland and Northern Ireland. The period covered is 21 January – 5 February 2020, although reference is made to later events where information is available at the time of final drafting.
Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales

External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of committees.

The EAAL Committee is currently undertaking work on International Agreements; the Scrutiny of Common UK policy frameworks; the Scrutiny of the Welsh Government’s International Strategy; and the negotiations between the UK and EU.

On 23 January the Welsh Government responded (PDF, 445KB) to the Committee’s report Common policy frameworks: Assembly scrutiny (PDF, 313KB).

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 27 January: The Committee held a Scrutiny session with the Counsel General and Brexit Minister. The webcast can be seen here; and
- 3 February: The Committee met in private.

On 27 January the Committee noted correspondence from the:

- Convener of the Scottish Parliament’s Culture, Tourism, Europe and External Affairs Committee regarding the EU (Withdrawal Agreement) Bill - 16 January 2020 (PDF 61 KB);
- Counsel General and Brexit Minister to the Chair regarding the Welsh Government’s publication of ‘The Future UK/EU Relationship: Negotiating Priorities for Wales’ - 20 January 2020 (PDF 230 KB);
- Chair of the House of Lords European Union Committee regarding the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Bill - 21 January 2020 (PDF 54 KB); and
- Minister for International Relations and the Welsh Language regarding Ministerial Forum for Trade - 23 January 2020 (PDF 260 KB).

Other committees

The Legislation, Justice and Constitution (LJC) Committee publishes reports on subordinate legislation relating to the UK’s exit from the EU. They can be found on the Committee’s webpages.

The Committee is currently carrying out an inquiry into Wales’ Changing Constitution including consideration of the implications of Brexit for the Welsh devolution settlement. On 21 January the Committee published its report on the Welsh Government’s Legislative Consent Memorandum on the Direct Payments to Farmers (Legislative Continuity) Bill (PDF 119 KB).
